

A+ Certification: Operating Systems is for students targeted to an individual with basic end-user skills using Windows-based personal computers. In this five-day course students will learn how to install an operating system and software applications on to a personal computer.

This course is for anyone who wishes to begin a career in information technology by becoming a personal computer service technician, or who wants to prepare to take the CompTIA A+ Operating Systems examination.

Prerequisites

- Introduction to Windows or Equivalent Experience
- Comp TIA A+ Hardware or Equivalent Experience

Content

- List windows and command lines tools
- Install Windows
- Configure a Non-Windows Application
- Configure Virtual Memory
- Manage applications
- Install network components
- Configure TCP/IP
- Set-up workgroup or domain memberships
- Create and enable user profiles
- Implement local security in Windows XP
- Manage file and print resources in Windows XP
- Manage disk resources in Windows XP
- Create or delete a partition
- Compress a Hard Disk
- Connect to internet and intranet resources
- Implement virus protection
- Prepare for disaster recovery
- Recover from disaster
- Install client operating systems
- Automate client operating system installations